O R D E R

Though the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner vehemently made submissions, considering the prayer sought for by the petitioner and taking into consideration the fact that the trial is on going, we are not inclined to consider the request seeking permission to travel abroad at this stage.

Thus, we only direct the Trial Court to expedite the trial and conclude the same within a period of one year from today. In the event that the said trial is not completed as aforestated, liberty is given to the petitioner to renew the application seeking permission to travel abroad.

The Special Leave Petition is, accordingly, dismissed with the aforesaid liberty.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
